Dear Betty,

This is going to take an hour to write because I consider you a really good friend of mine. We never go places together or anything but we still seem to be good friends. You are really different from most people and I mean that as a compliment. You and Betty Jo are two of the very sweetest girls I know. You are always happy and gay and that makes people like to be around you. I know I do at least. You always come up with some quaint little saying that is really darling.

I hope that you decide ~~to~~ which one you like pretty soon. I think you kind of know now, even though you don't let on. Either one of them are darling but you can't keep it up as much with you know who.

I really love you a lot Betty and you be sure and call me after you graduate. Love & kisses,

Ann

Dear Betty,

Hi Cutie
I don't think I will ever forgive you for not writing after all. But it's learned out all right after all. But you are a beautiful little girl with a lot of personality and I know a guy that owns a Jitterbug and if you can get a job & circulate it's you may meet a great many people & you do great more

Best of everything

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

This is a theater. A theater where the curtain never goes up, because it never comes down. The audience changes from time to time; however, this audience is special . . . we are part of it.

Within the weather-carved brick playhall, a myriad of characters moves across the stages. They play important roles, each representing one phase of high school life, in this great passing parade.

No two actors are alike. Each represents something different, yet related to the others. Every character is needed. If one is missing, the entire drama is incomplete.

To write a review of this supreme drama, each gayly whirling bit of choreography must be caught in midaction and frozen into permanency on paper. To this end we have devoted ourselves, and on the succeeding pages of this book we present a reconstruction of the actors, pageantry, and drama that is North Central.

Dear Betty,

Well we've gone to school together for about ten years now, it has been a lot of fun knowing all that time. I hope we are friends always. I really think you're a swell kid and I always will be. I want to wish you all the luck in the world.

J. M. TEWINKEL, Principal

It may surprise those who read these lines to know that they were written at Thanksgiving time, 1952. In the excitement of reading and "signing" this fine new book, few will realize how long it has been in preparation.

Maybe "thanksgiving" is about the best possible theme for this message, anyway.

North Central High School is thankful for the fine young people who make up its student body. It is grateful for more than 400 seniors who have stuck to their books, laboratories, and work shops in meeting Spokane's graduation requirements. We of the school's staff know that no graduate ever will regret "seeing it through." There will be many who read these lines who will consider withdrawing from school. We hope that they will profit by the example of the '53 graduates, instead.

There is another side to thanksgiving.

In an America and in an age which take too much for granted, we hope that our graduates will be grateful for the opportunities given them by public schools. We hope that their voices will be the first raised in defense of youth when the selfish would restrict public school opportunities. We hope that "1953 gratitude" will take a practical form: leadership in providing comparable chances for those in the later ranks of the steady procession which constitutes civilization.

J. M. Iswinkel

R. J. HOESLY, Vice-Principal

To the 1953 Graduates:

North Central High School has helped set the stage for your drama of life. Before you leave our stage for the last time I would like to ask you the following questions:

1. Are you aware of the problems that are likely to confront you after leaving school?
2. Have you developed interests and attitudes which will help you to become acceptable citizens?
3. Have you the knowledge which will help you to take advantage of your individual talents and abilities?
4. Are you leaving as an individual ready to keep on learning when the need or opportunity arises?

If you can answer yes to these questions, you have done a good job. North Central has done a good job.

After you receive your diplomas, many of you will be on your own. Take advantage of the opportunities which adult citizenship offers, accept your increasing responsibilities, and become active, intelligent participants in the affairs of your country.

These experiences are not only memories – but steppingstones on which we climb to greater heights, reach new horizons.

Dear Lady

Well it looks like we are about to get out of school. I want you to take it easy this Summer "not too much beer". I know you will always remember "Dave from study hall". I hope I will see you around this summer if you grow a little.

"Kenny"

Student government is carried on through the work of the Associated Student Body. Planning, planning and more planning seems to be its motto as the officers and the committee members work on the many school projects.

House and Senate make up the two bodies of the A. S. B. and representatives from each home room occupy the House. The Senate is composed of the five student body officers, senators from each of the four classes, and representatives from the Girls' League and Boys' Federation.

Striving to promote student interest in various activities and increase general school welfare, the student body takes an active interest in many projects. Besides sponsoring innumerable types of convoca-

FALL OFFICERS: Claudia Bratton, vice-president; Anne Ludwick, secretary; Pat Hirth, treasurer; Jean Charbulak, president.

Girls! Girls! Girls! Yes, every girl registered in North Central belongs to the Girls' League. Organized in 1918, the high ideals of girls are symbolized in the League emblem of honor, service, and loyalty.

Many activities of the League include the appointing of Big Cousins, a selected group to aid new girls entering school; the new girls party; a dancing class; a vocational convocation; Dad-Daughter Banquet; the Mothers' Tea; and the spring style show. They also sponsored a "Cotton Day" on April 8.

the honor roll, each semester, a girl must have C grades or better and have earned League points by service to the school.

A new point system was initiated in the spring semester. This system makes it possible for a girl to earn more points than in previous years. Points have been increased for jobs considered more important than others, and the number of points a girl must have to earn a pin has been increased proportionally.

A bronze pin goes to the girl who has given two semesters of service; a silver pin for four semesters; a gold pin for six; and a ruby set in a gold pin, for eight.

Motto of the Boys' Federation

Motto of the Boys' Federation is "to serve the boys of North Central and the school as a whole."

Lowell C. Bradford founded the Federation in 1918. As present adviser, he supervises the work of the four departments: School service, personal service, community service, and sports-for-all.

An executive council, composed of the four elected officers, five class representatives, heads of the four service departments, and representatives from each of the activities in which boys participate, directs the work of the group.

is "To Serve North Central."

A school flag featuring No-Co-Ho-So, North Central's mascot, has been purchased by the Fed. It is to be flown with the American flag. Other noteworthy activities of the group have been the awarding of the Archie Buckley inspirational trophy to Lew Turner, presenting convocations for the boys once a month, sponsoring the Sports-for-All program and the new boys' stag party, and purchasing new decals.

To train members in civic duties, the Federation patterns its elections after those of the city. Each summer, representatives are sent to Boys' State.

Among the important jobs of the Tamarack Staff are to select the cover and the theme, plan the make-up, collect and assemble senior pictures and activities, write copy and photograph all school groups and activities.

Writing copy, checking proofs, and collecting and photographing activities taking place in the spring are the jobs of the spring staff.

Honors Board gives final approval on presentation of awards. Student Court upholds the rules made by the student body.

"Isn't that a beautiful trophy!" It is the Honors Board that decides each semester what students are qualified to receive various athletic and service awards. Newly inaugurated this year is the award given to the senior A who has done much for North Central and has received no other recognition in school.

"Guilty or not guilty?" These words are heard each week as the holders of conduct slips from the previous days are summoned before the Student Court. Organized and conducted like a "true to life" court, members review each case separately, giving the "criminal" a chance to present his "defense."

Hall Guards are stationed in the corridors during classes. Alert Con Deputies assure attention during all convocations.

"May I see your pass, please?" questions the Hall Guard as he encounters a student outside of class. A pass, signed by a faculty member, must be carried by a student passing through the halls during class period. Stationed at various points in the halls, the alert Hall Guards issue conduct slips to students who cannot produce a pass.

"Hey, you in the blue shirt, will you please lower your voice?" "Patrolling" in all convocations, the Con Deputies see to it that order and attention prevail throughout the auditorium. Issuing conduct slips for scuffling, loud talking, and other disturbances, the Con Deputies are ever on the "alert."

Traffic Squad responsibilities develop leadership qualities. Supersleuths help maintain clean, attractive surroundings.

"I'm sorry, but you'll have to go up the north stairs. These are the down stairs." These are familiar words coming from members of the Traffic Squad as they carry out their duty. Directing students throughout the halls, these boys do an excellent job of taking care of traffic at North Central.

The Grounds Squad is constantly on the "prowl" for "lawbreakers," and members patrol the outside of the building as well as the inside, especially during lunch periods. Receiving a conduct slip for crowding in lunch lines and throwing things in the cafeteria, an offender is summoned before the Student Court.

Library Workers, largest group of helpers in the school, give valuable assistance to students as well as librarians.

It takes a lot of work to keep the library functioning properly, and the Library Workers help to make it easier. They comprise the largest of workers in the school.

They serve as hostesses, entrance and exit-door monitors, clerical workers, charging desk assistants, art library monitors, and fiction section workers. Library workers help to keep every book in its correct place on the shelf and contribute greatly to the efficiency of the library.

There is a complete change of staff each period. They give invaluable assistance to the librarians and to the students.

Recording study hall attendance keeps Roll Checkers busy. Distributing clean towels is one duty of Gym Office Workers.

"Has anyone seen John Jones?"

The Roll Checkers, each period, account for the presence or absence of all students enrolled in study hall. They check slips sent in from the library, trace "missing" persons and keep neat, e f f i c i e n t records.

"Here's your towel."

Yes, the girls' Gym Office Workers, besides checking attendance daily, maintain a fine organization, keep individual records on each girl taking gym and distribute clean, fresh towels to everyone after each gym period.

NURSES WORKERS—Standing: Marcia Griffith, Jolene Pierson, Peggy Ulrich, Mabel Bennett. Seated: Miss Fritchie, Barbara Morris.

Locker Monitors are protectors of our personal property. Workers in the nurse's office keep it functioning properly.

Locker Monitors protect our personal property six periods a day. It is their job to guard the locker rooms from intrusion and disorder, and prevent damage to the articles kept there. These girls are a hard-working group that must be alert, conscientious, and willing to accept responsibility.

Because the nurse is present at North Central only twice a week, it is necessary to have someone to carry out her duties in her absence. The recently organized group of girls who do this work learn to accept responsibility, keep orderly records, and to handle human relations.

Talented members of Tau Chi serve through entertainment. Aquettes promote skill and interest in competitive swimming.

Members of Tau Chi, new talent club, are on call at all times to entertain service and business organizations. To be a member, one must have at least a C average and good citizenship, besides having a special talent. Two talent cons are to be presented each year.

Aquettes, North Central's swimming club organized last fall, seeks to promote skill and interest in synchronized and competitive swimming. Members chosen by tryouts must be girls who enjoy this sport. In the spring the club presented its first water show. Officers are elected once a year.

Math sharks are amused by tricky problems at meetings. "Lovers of books" sponsor annual Book Week convocation.

Sharpening their wits by working tricky mathematic problems, members of Math Club are required to have three semesters of B grades in mathematics and no grade below C in other subjects. Each year the club conducts a contest open to all students at North Central.

The Mary R. Bacon chapter of Amores Librorum, named for its founder and adviser, is made up of honor-roll students. To promote interest in books, the club sponsors such service projects as the Book Week convocation. Members also have an opportunity to meet foreign students.

Custodians and Cafeteria Staff, in ministering to our needs, play important roles in our school life at North Central.

"The school looks sparkling clean."

Such are the words you may have heard from students after spring vacation. The custodians, always busy, spent their spring vacation scrubbing and waxing floors, washing windows, cleaning woodwork and caring for the lawn.

Preparing healthful, attractive food at a low cost is the task of the cafeteria staff. These five, always anxious to please, spend hours preparing our lunches. In addition to serving complete, well-balanced meals with hot dishes, salads, and dessert, they provide the students with appetizing extras.

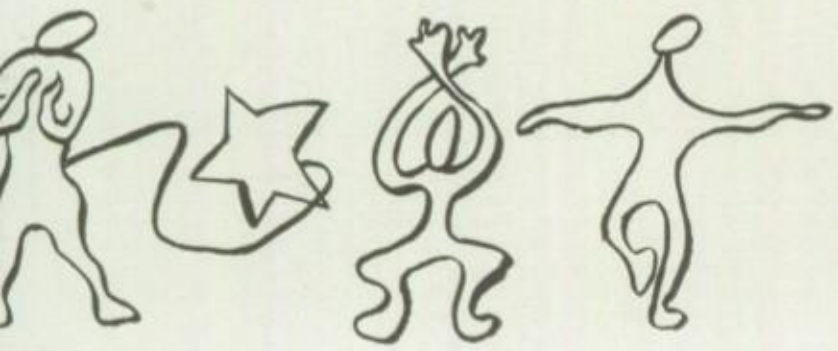
NIGHT OF JANUARY 16 STAGE CREW CHOIR ORCHESTRA MIKADO TEPEE LIGHTERS

THREE FIVES



Choir, Orchestra, Tepee Lighters, finish fine musical year. Music Department presents programs for school, civic groups.

Music has had another successful year at North Central. Under the direction of W. Stanley Taft and student directors, the Choir, Orchestra, and Tepee Lighters have completed a busy schedule.

Sixty-four members of choir gave a fine performance last fall in "The Mikado," by Gilbert and Sullivan. They sang at Baccalaureate, and presented programs at the Davenport Hotel, at four Spokane churches, and for the Elderbloom Club. "The Greater Spokane Music Festival" and "Melody Capers" were the main activities for the spring semester. Choir presented as its main feature, "Kyrie in D Minor" by Bach, in "Melody Capers." Recordings of this were made for Red Cross overseas service.

Orchestra, comprised of 35 members, provided music for the operetta, "Melody Capers," and Baccalaureate and Commencement programs.

Tepee Lighters presented "Christmas Cantata," by Gerald Hartley, in the lobby of the Davenport Hotel. They gave programs also for a Faculty Wives Banquet, the Greater Spokane Music Festival, and, travelling to Pullman, the Eastern Washington Music Educators Festival at Washington State College.

North Central's Band has continued its fine musical work. Members participate in musical concerts and athletic events.

The drums go bang,
The cymbols clang,
The horns, they blaze away—

North Central Band, under the direction of Lowell C. Bradford has continued to build up its excellent school tradition of thirty years standing. The fifty-third formal concert, presented in March, indicated that they have indeed merited their twenty-seventh invitation to the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival. Marching with their usual style and precision they did themselves and their school credit as the host band in the annual Lilac Parade and in the Stadium Show, where with the Red Feathers they presented "A Century of Transportation."

The Pep Band, under the student leadership of Pat Sullivan, has continued its outstanding work playing for numerous before-school dances. The Special Band, composed of the Pep Band with specialty instrumentalists, played for sports convocations and other events.

The Dixieland Band, newly organized this year by Don Wimberly, has proved its popularity with the students by playing strictly jazz music.

"Mikado," comedy operetta of '52 entertains audience.

"The Mikado," 1952 operetta written by Gilbert and Sullivan and directed by W. Stanley Taft, music department head, was presented on December 12, 13 and 14.

An entertaining comedy operetta, the story tells of Nanki Poo (George Hagen) who runs away from home because his father, The Mikado (Rex Hoesley) wants him to marry Katisha (Yvonne Blackstone).

Nanki Poo arrives in Tittipo, meets Yum Yum (Dixie Lee Miles) and wants to marry her. She can't, however, for she is promised to Lord High Executioner (George Casselman). The fly in the ointment is The Mikado, who plans to come to Top: "Will you be mine?" questions George Casselman to Yvonne Blackstone. Middle: "Gimme a little kiss, will you, huh?" is the theme of this pose between Dixie Lee Miles and George Hagen. Bottom: "You mean we're going to be executed?" say John Eakins, George Casselman and Don Circle.

Memorable performances were given by the cast.

Tittipo to see the execution of someone, anyone. Nanki Poo is to be executed within the month, but he and Yum Yum disappear and a fake execution is "cooked up." The Mikado hears, falsely, that Nanki Poo, his own lost son, has been executed, so he plans to execute the executioners.

Nanki Poo and Yum Yum return, however; Katisha and Lord High Executioner are married; no one is executed; and everyone lives happily ever after.

The cast gave a memorable performance of a delightful operetta.

Right: Magda Svenson (Carol Schrock) seems to be telling defense attorney Stevens (Joan Hiatt) exactly what happened that fatal "January 16" night as jury members Marlene Lilleby, Donna Walden, Gerry Kandler, Kathy Walter and Lowell Yeager, look on. Court secretary is Dotty Hilborn.

Done in three acts, the play takes place in a courtroom.

"The Night of January 16," by Ann Rand, was the 1952 all-school play directed by Miss Myrtle Chitty, dramatics coach. It is an entertaining comedy-drama of a murder trial.

What happened that fatal January night was described by twelve witnesses of varying dispositions and character, as their turns to be questioned came about.

Done in three acts, the entire play takes place in a courtroom. Novelty of the production is that the jury members are drawn from the audience before curtain time. Not knowing whether the defendant will be found guilty or not guilty, suspense mounts among the cast and the audience as to the verdict the jurists will render at the conclusion of the play.

A Broadway stage hit, "The Night of January 16," was enjoyed by all student body members and faculty who saw it. Presentation dates were November 13 and 14.

The cast was invited to Eastern Washington College of Education November 25 by H. K. Stevens, drama coach, where they presented the play for the college students.

A performance was given by the cast, free of charge, for the dramatics classes of Rogers and Lewis and Clark, the evening of November 12. This was done, according to Miss Chitty, to acquaint the cast with the reactions of the audience—to teach them to wait for laugh lines and to enunciate more distinctly.

This performance, although a dress rehearsal, gave the cast an excellent idea of how acting before a real audience would be.

Dale Brannon is dramatics instructor at Rogers and Miss Florence Wager at Lewis and Clark.

Martha Winton plays a nursery song.

Bill Guske "makes up" Ross Goetz, for the show, as Miss Barbara Brown looks on.

Talent convocation entertains school with a diversity of acts.

Ann Charlene Martinson and Carolyn Young make last-minute preparations.

Tau Chi talent club presented a pay convocation directed by Miss Barbara Brown on February 5 in the auditorium. Proceeds of the convocation went into the March of Dimes fund. An enjoyable 37 minutes of outstanding entertainment was given by North Central students for North Central students.

Variety of entertainment was provided with whistling, tap dancing, instrumental solos, and the Meremaids, only a few of the many acts. Master of ceremonies, Ross Goetz, did an excellent job of announcing the acts, and had the audience "rolling in the aisles" with his magician tricks.

First annual P.T.A. Vaudeville

First annual Vaudeville Show sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association was given on the evenings of February 11 and 12.

Entertainment was varied, with parents, teachers, and students performing. School room scenes, a magician's act, and comedy players were among the many outstanding acts.

proves tremendous success.

"Men's Ballet," composed of teachers, custodians, and parents, went over with a "bang." Directed by Miss Elsa Pinkham, the men "dancers" performed to perfection.

Miss Myrtle Chitty directed the show, with Dan Davis as planning committee head.

Nineteen fifty-two may not go down in Indian history as a great year on the gridiron as far as victories go, but it will always be fondly remembered as the year of great plays – Ray Hiner's spectacular 86-yard kickoff return in the Shrine game before 22,000 astounded fans, the "old" deadman play, which went for a touchdown against Gonzaga, and a host of others which were pulled from Coach Jerry Stannard's seemingly never empty bag of tricks.

"We had fun this year," commented Coach Stannard, "and I'm sure the fans enjoyed watching the Indians."

"Final-gun fight" of Warriors thrills large stadium crowds. Red and Black gridders turn in memorable season of play.

They weren't the champions of last season, but you still could recognize the "final-gun fight" of the North Central 1952 football team.

Hopes for 1953 burn bright as Coach Jerry Stannard loses but half the squad via the diploma route and next year's Tribesmen should be a sure bet to improve on the 1-7-1 win-loss tie record posted by this year's crew.

Led by All-City Captain Lew Turner, explosive Mike Reopelle, and hard-charging Don Faraca, the Indians gave every team they met something to think about before the final gun.

A record crowd of over 25,000 Merry-Go-Round spectators saw North Central shine in the second quarter as they outclassed archrival Lewis and Clark Tigers, 12-0. Meeting defending champion Gonzaga in the championship battle the Tribe found tough going and dropped a 7-0 count to the vet-heavy Bullpups.

After a 28-0 loss to the Richland Bombers in Richland, the Indians bounced back to tie Lewis and Clark, 6-6, in a game completely dominated by North Central.

The traveling Indians received no hospitality from the Yakima Pirates in their first Columbia Basin Conference game and they came out second best, 12-14, on two missed conversion attempts.

In the first Gonzaga game, the Indians saw victory cruely snatched from their grasp as the Bullpups pulled one out of fire to win, 13-7, in the final minute of play. Lewis and Clark was upset minded in the next Indian tilt and the Tribe fell, 19-13, in the annual Shrine classic, played in Memorial Stadium.

Getting back on the victory trail so common the season before, the Indians downed the John Rogers Pirates, 26-12, for their most decisive victory of the year.

Goliath came north in the form of powerful and heavy Walla Walla and the Indians couldn't cope with the experienced and heavy Blue Devil team as they dropped another, 7-26.

Records fell right and left in the next Indian engagement. The Tribe gave Gonzaga a scoring battle before losing, 42-25, in a hectic point-a-minute game played at North Central.

The last game of the year found an inspired Rogers crew getting a 35-7 victory over the Indians in a game played at Rogers.

Outstanding all season were Turner, who received the coveted Archie Buckley Inspirational Award; guard Paul Dixon, voted lineman of the year; junior back Bob Wilkes, tackling; end Bob Sleizer, blocking, and Don Faraca and Turner, co-captains for the season.

Assisting Coach Stannard were Bob Bland and Bill Deidrick.

Managers this year were Eddie Unicume and Doug Halin.

For the second straight year Coach Bill Whitaker has guided the North Central B squad football team to second place in the city league.

Finishing the season with a 4-2-1 record, the Tribe varsity of next year dropped two close decisions to the Gonzaga Bullpups, the champions of the league. A 7-7 tie with John Rogers was more than nullified by a 35-0 pasting administered by the Braves later on in the season.

Hustle and speed were the key characteristics of the 1953 Indian cage team. Jerry Stannard coached the Tribe to a third-place tie with the Lewis and Clark Tigers. Not a single team left the floor after meeting the Red and Black without a certain amount of admiration for the powerful hoop squad.

Journeying into Montana, the Warriors dropped their first preseason tilt to the Helena Bengals, 71-46. The Missoula Spartans dumped the Redskin five, 53-31, in the two-day Missoula Invitational Tourney. Fighting hard, the Indians were edged by the Flathead Braves from Kalispel, 42-41.

Richland's Bombers were entertained by North Central as the Tribe dropped its first home game of the season, 56-52. In a return match at Richland, the Tribe still could not capture a win. The Bombers were victorious, 53-37.

Defending state champion Wa-Hi triumphed over the scrappy Warrior five, 51-37, at Walla Walla. The Indians smashed Sunnyside, 65-51, to hit the victory trail. In a double overtime tilt, Wapato edged the Tribe, 59-57.

the Indians bested the South Siders, 42-37, in the prep loop opener in the Spokane Armory.

Next victim of the NC hoop quintet was cellar-dwelling Gonzaga. The Tribe came from behind to take the Pups, 45-42. John Rogers Pirates staged a turning of the tables to hand North Central its first city league defeat of the year. The Pirates won, 45-40.

Upset-minded Redskin cagers came within a hair of getting their fondest hopes, but were edged out, 48-47, by eventual co-champion West Valley in the year's hottest-fought tilt. Lewis and Clark in a return engagement with the Tribe showed new strength in defeating the favored North Centralites, 48-40.

had earlier defeated the Warriors, lost to the Red and Black, 50-47, in an afternoon Armory tilt.

Returning to city loop action, N. C. trounced the Gonzaga Bullpups with a 38-point second-half scoring spree. The Indians took the contest, 52-38. Ray Ericksen sunk a last-ditch howitzer to give the Red and Black a 47-46 win over the favored Rogers Pirates.

West Valley Eagles foiled Redskin plans for a second-place tie by dropping the Tribe five, 53-46, and stepped up to share the league title with Rogers.

Reichert ranked third in the city scoring race, but he rates first for hustle and driving spirit. With another season to play for the Warriors, Bob is a ray of hope for the 1954 wrecking crew.

Most accurate scorer in the city prep race was Jim Tinnell with a .409 average from the floor. Ray Ericksen turned in a fine season of backboard work and is to be remembered for dumping in the winning shot against Rogers in a fierce contest. Lew Turner fought hard and could be counted on when needed.

Finishing strong by winning their last two games, Coach "Nip" Hagen's B Squad still could only muster fourth place in league standings. LeRoy Sutherlin paced Indian scorers with 59 points in the eight league games. Taking a close second was Lee Walker with 57 points.

In one of the final games, North Central took a revenge tilt from West Valley, 59-54, after dropping a 39-37 heartbreaker to the Eagles earlier. The Tribe also dumped second-place Lewis and Clark, 44-38, to finish the season with three wins and five losses.

Although their win-and-loss record was nothing of which to speak highly, Coach Bob Hoesly's frosh basketball squad lost some very close contests that could have gone either way to Lewis and Clark and Libby.

Baseball coaching staff looks to future seasons of play.

Prospects of a league pennant look good this season for defending co-champion North Central Indians as the Tamarack goes to press. With lettermen and a host of players up from the B squad and freshman teams, Coach Al Manfred has hopes of repeating last year's championship form.

Gordy Brunette and Dick Fosness return to infield posts this season, giving the Tribe nine much-needed experience in that department. Brunette, a sparkling first sacker, provides plenty of power at the plate, and Fosness brings some of his basketball hustle into the diamond sport.

Others vying for infield spots are: Bill Cox, Frank Malikowski, Bob Reichert, Dwayne Upp, and George Weishaar.

Veteran fly chasers Don Faraca and Lew Turner will patrol the outer garden this season. Turner, by no means a stranger to North Central athletics, is a long-ball hitter and should be taking quite a few round trips over the base paths this year.

Burrel Nutt, Ralph Aspaas, Bill Lennard, Dan Rowley, Wallace Woodard, Dick Disney, and Ben Malikowski provide good material to fill out the team in the fielding department.

Earl Stoner, letterman hurler, returns to action for the Tribe this year. Adding depth to the mound staff are Walt Lobdell, Gene Keevy, Rodney Moen, Dennis Petek, Gordy Recor, Tom Orth, and Pat Sullivan.

"Our pitching staff is one of the best since I've been here," remarked Coach Manfred. "We have a lot more depth than last year."

Larry Fisher will be the starting backstop for the Redskins this season. Dick Lightfoot, up from last year's frosh squad, will be a reliable substitute.

N. C. in 1952, is rated as the Tribe's greatest threat. The Zags won last summer's American Legion baseball loop title.

"I am quite sure," commented the Indian mentor, "that the trophy will be at North Central this spring."

In the season's first two contests, the Warriors emerged victorious. Lewis and Clark's perennially strong Tigers were the initial victims. The Redskins downed L. C., 5-3, paced by Dick Disney's two-run single and Don Faraca's homer inside the park.

Gonzaga's Bullpups tasted defeat at the hands of the Tribe, 9-7, in the year's first meeting of the two ball clubs. Veteran hurler Earl Stoner went all the way for N. C. allowing 10 hits. Dick Fosness slammed out a four-bagger to drive in the tie-breaking run ahead of him.

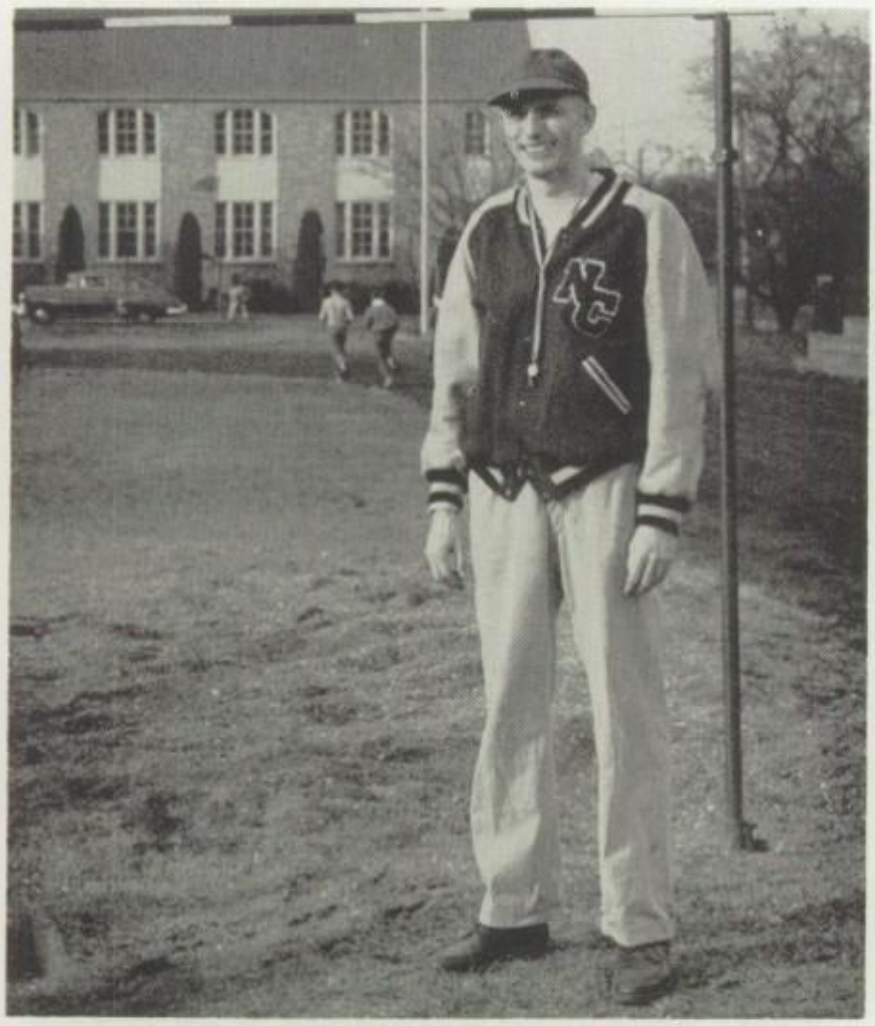
'Hill and dalers' carry on high tradition of Red and Black.



Coach Al Danielson

Moving up one notch from the 1951 cross-country standings, Coach Al Danielson's "hill and dalers" finished a strong second to the Lewis and Clark Tigers in city competition.

With Larry Haunschild leading the way in the first meet of the year, the Red and Black defeated John Rogers, 22½ to 36½. The B team made it all victory for the Indians by edging the Pirate B's, 20-52.

Lewis and Clark proved to be North Central's downfall as the Tribe varsity was defeated by the talented Tigers, 18-53. LC scored a clean sweep by taking the B meet, 16-46.

In the annual All-City meet North Central placed second to Lewis and Clark in both the A and B events.

City track and field meets rated 'close' by Indian mentor.

Indian hopes for a track and field championship burn bright as the Tamarack goes to press. Bolstered by two All-City cinder men, Ray Ericksen and Rex Hoseley, the Warriors have a talent-packed squad.

Mike Reopelle and Bob Nance look good in the sprint department. Rex Hoseley and Dan McKinnon defend the Tribe's honor in the 440 while Floyd Perkins, K. Norman, and Gordon Lindholm pace off the 880 event. Ron Sanders, Alan Robinson, Dick Haunschild, and Larry Haunschild represent the Red and Black in the mile run.

Hurdlers Ray Ericksen, Ken Miller. and Don Brown are looking sharp and in good form.

"Our chances in city competition are brighter than last year," stated Al Danielson, track coach. "Meets will be much closer this season and we'll have a better chance in tight contests."

Beginning their regular season April 17, the Braves traveled to Rogers to be defeated, 39 to 65. However, Ron Sanders and Larry Haunschild did a good job in the mile as did K. Norman in the 440. Ray Ericksen took first in the high hurdles while Mike Reopelle took two thirds in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

April 24 the Tribe defeated favored Gonzaga, 55 1/5 to 48 4/5. Ray Ericksen won the high hurdles, and Bob Donaldson and Bud Watson tied for first in the pole vault, while Rex Hoseley won the broad jump.

The Red and Black swept the mile event with Ron Sanders turning in the winning time of 4:50.2.

Intramural basketball heads Sports-for-All program.

"No rough stuff now, boys." Top: Al Benson. Bottom: Kenny Jordan.

Sports-for-All program sponsored by the Boys' Federation was headlined this year by the intramural basketball league. Coached by Dave Holmes, the six teams engaged in a battle royal.

Although teams were sometimes short-handed, the boys enjoyed the spirit of keen competition found in the hoop sport.

Jack Fisher guided his Fishhawks to the loop championship by dropping the Green Waves, 57-33, in a playoff contest. The Greenites were runners-up and Paul Greco's Goodies followed in third spot.

Heading the second-division cage teams, Dick Disney's Dimwits pulled up to fourth place with a .400 average. Disney topped all intramural scorers with 115 points in five games for a 23.0 average. Gary Bowker placed second on 15.7 tallies per game.

Tumbling, coached by Howard McNew, drew about six boys into the new gym, after school for workouts. Performing for the P.-T. A. vaudeville show and a Fed convocation was a highlight of the tumbler's season.

Bob Bland coached North Central wrestlers to an enjoyable season. The boys turned out for the mat sport purely from a keen interest in the pastime which is fast becoming a fad through television. Kevin Scanlan, Bob Waite, Ken Jordan, and El Benson performed for a Boys' Federation con in February.

After-school swimming began in April under the direction of Jerry Stannard.

Out to try to better last year's second-place standing in the Inland Empire golf tournament, Coach Don Bonamy's divot diggers opened the golf season with a match against archrival Lewis and Clark, the defending champions.

At Tamarack press time the starting line-up went like this: Jim Hanley, Lewis Hutchins, Allan Holman, Rod Hanneman, George Hicks, John Ellsworth, Dick Thompson, and Riley Chase. The squad lost all lettermen through June graduation.

Highlights of the season were the boys and girls' mixed two-ball tourney, and the annual Inland Empire High School golf tournament.

Color Girls, peppy rooting unit, further interest in our sports.

This peppy cheering unit promotes school spirit and shows an interest in all athletic activities about North Central. The group was organized in 1930 with twenty girls.

During the past school year, Color Girls have participated in football half-time stunts and in marching in parades along with the North Central Band and the Red Feathers. Several of the girls participated in the Lilac Stunt at the Stadium. Under the guidance of Eleanor Dixon, the officers elected each semester from the sophomore B class, carry on the activities of this unit.

Basketball teams increase competition through girls' sports.

Under the direction of Miss Eleanor Dixon, the girls' basketball teams managed by Inga Pederson, Dorothy Nolan, Pat Hirth, and Rena Toll, played over forty games throughout the season.

The "Sophomore Rods," captained by Carolyn Joyner, was the championship team. "Sophomore Secundas," captained by Dorothy Carmichael, took second place and the "Senior Somethings," with Phyllis Luschei, captain, were third.

Games were played Tuesdays and Thursdays after school, two being played each afternoon.

Carol Daisley grabbed individual scoring honors with forty points for the season.

BASKETBALL MANAGERS: Inga Pederson, Dorothy Nolan.

Girls' tennis team wins city championship for fifth time.

For the fifth straight year, the girls' tennis team, coached by Miss Pinkham, wound up the season by winning the city championship title.

Dorothy Penna was team captain last fall with Jeanette Hamblin and Kay Ewy as co-captains this spring. Kay and Dorothy won the city titles for doubles champions, and Jeanette for singles.

Fall manager was Anna Mae Rosholt; spring managers were Pat Koenig and Joy Baertsch. Karol Woodbury was fall and spring Papoose manager.

Tennis practices were period 6 and after school each Monday and Wednesday.

Girls' softball teams meet mornings before school.

"Three strikes! You're out."

Girls' softball, organized the week of April 15, was played each Monday and Wednesday mornings at 7:30. Miss Eleanor Dixon was director assisted by Miss Elsie Rubins, cadet from Whitworth.

Basketball throw for distance, the 370-yard run, and the 370 four-man relay race were among the events of the girls' track meet Monday, May 25.

Horseback riding was enjoyed each Wednesday after school with Cathy Stimson manager. Twenty-five girls made up the group. They were accompanied by Miss Dixon who drove them out in the Indian wagon.

After-School swim classes help perfect swimming strokes.

Under the direction of Miss Dixon, seventy-five girls turned out for after-school swimming during the fall and spring semesters. Classes met each Monday from 3 p. m. to 4 p. m. Gae Hall was swim chairman.

All girls taking these swim courses as part of their after-school sports improved their strokes. Red Cross beginning, intermediate, and advanced swim tests were passed and "free" swim was enjoyed by all.

Gym points for all-activity shields and bars were earned by those turning out for swimming. One gym make-up was given for each time the girl participated in the swim class.

Swimming chairman Gae Joanne Hall demonstrates the breaststroke as Pat Hanson, Rae Nickell, Jo Anne Basquette, and Claudia Phelps look on.

Girls' golf manager, Judy Evans, and captain Nancy Roberts.

Winning the city golf title championship for seven consecutive times, the girls' golf team, coached by Neil Christian, Downriver golf professional, emerged victorious over their opponent, Lewis and Clark. Faculty director is Miss Wilhelmine Timm who is assisted by Miss Muriel Allison.

Fall officers of the team were Cebe Rendle, captain, and Marlene Emley, manager. Nancy Roberts was spring captain with Judy Evans, manager.

Tournament date for the two-ball foursome in the fall was October 16, while May 11 and May 18 marked the spring events. Tuesdays and Thursdays found the girls practicing at Downriver golf course.

The usual play consists of a team of four girls. Each school plays with as many teams as they have girls for, using the aggregate medal score.

Song and Yell Leaders, companions to each other in both pep convocations and at games, help create the enthusiasm of the student body in support of the teams and are an integral part of the fine school spirit. The Color Guards, as they march in parades and stunts with the Song and Yell Leaders, are symbols of our school colors. All three groups are clad in red and white on each game day.

Pat Hirth was chairman of Song Leaders in the fall and Marilyn Davis succeeded her in the spring. Bill Guske has been chairman of Yell Leaders both semesters.

CHEER LEADERS—Bill Crowe, Bill Guske (chairman), Bud Watson.

COLOR GUARDS—Susie Walters, Marlys McGeorge. Louise Fisken and Joan Rice were Color Guards during the fall semester.

Dear Betty,

Just think in a little while we won't be able to come to ~~the~~ pen. & talk with everybody it's going to really seem funny.

I bet we'll have fun graduating but it sure doesn't seem possible.

I'll never forget the times we double dated & when you drove the car & really had fun but to tell the truth I didn't think I'd get out alive.

Betty, I really think you are a sweet, funny, little girl. (humorous)

You are fun to be with & when somebody's in a bad mood you just always get them out of it & make them laugh.

I hope I see you alot after we graduate maybe I can go somewhere with you & Carl & May Ann.

Betty, I wish you luck in everything you do.

Best wishes.

Dearest Betty,
For the sweetest, cutest, funniest, nicest little girl in the world I want to wish all the good luck possible. You are really wonderful! It seems like you understand everyones! Remember, I'll always be a good friend. Really Betty you're one of my favorite people. I'll never forget Biology 2 yr ago & all the things we did, and I'll never forget your little sayings such as (Ching! + scorb). How can I ever leave you + all my other friends. For help, please! write to me. Please! write to me. I'll be one who writes too. All I've written here isn't something in a Yearbook but comes from the bottom of my heart. Love "Ginny"

Dear Betty,

Well, honey, I sure hope we'll see a lot of each other after we graduate. We always say we will, but you know how that goes.

Betty, for the past 3 years, I've always loved you & thought an awful lot of you. Even when I got mad at you, I just couldn't stay mad, because — well, I don't know why because I love you, I guess.

We've really had fun being Siamese twins together, double-dating with Mike & Tom & that last double-date with Geo. & Bev, but then we've had some real good laughs & cries together, too.

Maybe you think I was the one that told Fortune Teller something against you, but honestly, honey, I've always forgiven you for the things that you've done to me. I'll Let's really have fun on the lake Aug. & really raise hell! I know we won't have to try very hard, will we? And, if Sandra takes care of her own self, maybe she won't have to spend all her time in bed, and can enjoy herself.

God, I don't know what I'm going to do without you & Sandra living with me almost every minute of the day. Every time I think of being away from you two guys, I nearly get a lump in my throat!

But, here's giving you all my love & smooches & hugs,

Your loving classmate,

Joyce Kippen

Dear Betty,

Well, little one, this isn't exactly my line, but since I must sign this I will. It really has been "wonderful" going out with you these past few months. You have a "fine" personality and have with you always that sweet little smile. I'm not a half bad guy myself so that puts two damn good kids together which can't go wrong. We can't miss kid!! Getting serious again, monster, you are the cutest girl I have yet to lay my eyes on and believe me my eyes have been laiyed on many girls!! You're "nifty". I really hope we can still go out with as little interference as possible. That is probably more than I can hope for, however. "Hot dog you're swell." Well "baked apples" I can't think of anything more to say so I'll close with these words, "Hello there"

Lots of love,

Mike

Dear Little Betty.

Well "Little One," its been nice having you for my very best friend.

Betty, you are the funnest & sweetest girl I have ever known. I've have fun the best of friends & lets be sure to stay this ~~way~~ way for the rest of our days.

Just think of all the fun we have had. On two stage, & for sure on this next one.

Gosh Betty, its so darn hard to write to you cause you know how much I really do love you. I think you have been the dearest friend I could ever have.

I know we have gotten into a few squabbles, but they were just part of our friendship. Anyway, we don't have those matters to fight over any more.

I ~~How~~ hate to think about good. Are you going to cry with me Betty? I thanks for everything Kid. This isn't good by though.

Love Sandra
